

Washington, D. C. 20505

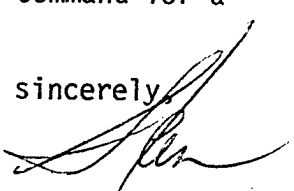

5 MAY 1977

Dear General Aaron,

Thank you for your letter of 15 April inviting me to attend the Second Annual Military Intelligence Ball as Guest of Honor and to address the officers and their wives.

Unfortunately, I am already heavily committed for July and must regretfully decline your kind invitation. My best wishes to you and the officers of the Intelligence and Security Command for a most successful evening.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER
Admiral, U.S. Navy

Major General Harold R. Aaron
Assistant Chief of Staff (Intelligence)
Department of the Army
The Pentagon
Washington, D.C. 20310